

OREGON COMMUNITY MEDIA

MISSION

Oregon Community Media is an association of non-commercial Radio Stations working together to strengthen local independent media to better serve diverse communities.

The purposes for which Oregon Community Media is formed are for educational and charitable purposes within the meaning of Section 501 (c) (3) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1954, and in this connection:

- To promote the coordination of and cooperation among educational radio broadcasting stations in Oregon
- To facilitate the exchange of programs
- To further the professional education of station staffs
- To promote the best and maximum use of state and federal funds spent for radio in Oregon
  - To seek new avenues of funding
- To contribute to the development of a statewide community by making available locally produced programming of statewide interest.

Oregon Community Media

Has a strong conviction that the airwaves belong to you, the public, not to commercial interest and profit. OCMC is committed to strong community radio stations reaching their full potential through:

Collaboration: OCM encourages cooperative individuals and community radio stations to work as a team to provide a foundation to enhance and maximize community radio potential.

Shared Resources: OCM Stations share knowledge, expertise, programming and equipment to strengthen community radio in Oregon.

Service: OCM as an organization, and the members of OCM, offer freely to provide access to resources, knowledge and provide support for the success of all Oregon Community Media members.

Strong Community Stations

OCM is dedicated to the development, sustainability, and success of every community radio station in Oregon.

Diversity: OCM believes that community media content should understand and reflect the value of others; their uniqueness and their contribution to the community and have an inherent commitment to honor gender, sexual orientation, race, cultural backgrounds and beliefs.

Independent Voices: OCM provides support for stations to foster a diversity of voices representing our communities and encourage programming outside the mainstream media.
